FOUNDATIONS FOR MINISTRY

THE Diocese of Chester runs a very useful course enabling Christians to enter more fully into their ministry. Whilst the course can lead to further vocations, such as ordination, readership or Pastoral worker, it is extremely useful in it's own right in providing the essential tools for ministry in our contemporary culture. The course does represent a significant commitment but also presents a genuine opportunity to grow. If you are interested have a chat with some former students, Dave Monday, Beatrix Calow, Chris Gascoigne, or for more information please see; <http://www.chester.amglican.org/ministry/foundations-for-ministry/> on the Diocesan website.

Finally, if you think this is for you, please discuss with Gary our Vicar.
